*Additional queries submitted by TECHNOLOGIES SPECIALIST, INC. last January 12, 2009:

Queries	Remarks
1. Is it possible to use CIAC documents as consignee for all products needed to be ship in order to avail VAT Exemption?	Yes, however, only items required in this project shall be allowed. The application, processing and coordination shall be made by the winning bidder with CDC-OEMD. CIAC will provide a copy of the documents needed for VAT Exemption.
2. Since our company will have a JV partner with a non-Philippine (foreign) company; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Does our foreign partner need to be a PhilGEP's registered? Or would our company's PhilGEP's registration be enough for the requirement?</li> <li>b. Does our foreign partner need to have a translated legal document to be submitted for the bid? Or can our Philippines consulate (in Korea) certified all legal documents that will be submitted?</li> </ul>	Yes, the foreign partner needs to be registered with PhilGEPs. Its registration certificate shall also be submitted. Yes, the legal documents should be translated. Likewise, we reiterate that in the case of foreign manufacturers, suppliers, distributors and contractors, the Class "A" Documents may be substituted by the appropriate equivalent documents issued by the country of the foreign manufacturer, supplier, distributor and contractor concerned, which documents must be duly acknowledged and authenticated by the Philippine Consulate therein.

3. Do we need to supply and install UPS in every workstation? Including Servers, WS and laptop?	The bidder is required to supply four (4) units UPS which are to be installed on the two (2) Servers and two (2) Work Stations.
4. Is there any possibility that CIAC could re-consider the use of a Windows based server rather than a UNIX based server? For one, the heart of our System runs on a Windows Server which we are currently being used in all Airports in South Korea and Re-configuring it to a UNIX based server would mean additional costs. I believed CIAC's (IT) main concern is regarding the attack of virus. Since FIDS would have a separate network and only secured personnel would have the access in the system, contaminating the system would not be easy.	Unix shall be the main OS for the Server.
